

NZREX Clinical - Examination Rules

Examination misconduct

Examination misconduct will result in the candidate failing the examination and may impact on future registration should the candidate subsequently re-sit and pass the NZREX Clinical. Misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

- introduction of unauthorised material into the examination room
- obtaining, receiving, exchanging or passing on information during the examination (or attempting to), which could be examination-related, by means of talking, written papers/notes, telephone or recording examination scenarios
- attempting to solicit information about the examination from candidates from an earlier time slot
- copying from another candidate
- collusion
- disruptive behaviour during the examination
- failing to abide by the conditions of supervision designed to maintain the security of the examination
- failing to abide by the instructions or advice of an examiner or Council staff member in relation to the examination rules
- impersonation: pretending to be someone else or arranging for a third party to take the candidate's place in an examination
- misuse of examination material, for example by passing or attempting to pass such material to a third party after the examination (this includes sharing any examination scenarios or examination information in any public or private forum)
- bribing or attempting to bribe an examination official
- behaving in such a way as to undermine the integrity of the examination
- contacting or attempting to contact examiners before or after the examination for any reason.
